SULLIVAN COUNTY ET AL. v. PURDUE PHARMA, L.P. ET AL.

Circuit Court for Sullivan County
No. C41916-C

No. E2021-00479-COA-R3-CV

ORDER

Upon consideration of the motion for a stay filed by the appellants, Endo Health Solutions, Inc. and Endo Pharmaceuticals, Inc., and the response filed by the appellees, this Court has determined that the motion is not in compliance with Rule 7 of the Tennessee Rules of Appellate Procedure. Specifically, the motion is not accompanied by a copy of the motion to stay filed in the Trial Court, any answer thereto, and the Trial Court's order denying the motion, nor does the motion include any factual allegations showing that seeking relief from the judgment in the Trial Court was not practicable. See Tenn. R. App. P. 7(a). The motion asserts that seeking a stay in the Trial Court is not practicable because the Trial Court has set a trial date. This assertion is insufficient to show that seeking relief in the Trial Court was not practicable. The motion for a stay is hereby DENIED without prejudice to appellants' ability to seek relief in the Trial Court.
