Manager / Marine
Arbitrator

CLYDE & CO

Mark Ledger FCI Arb

Summary

I am a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (CI Arb), supporting member of the London Maritime Arbitrators Association (LMAA) and on the database of LCIA arbitrators. I also hold a diploma in Domestic Arbitration.

I have extensive experience of international and domestic arbitration in various forums including LCIA, LMAA and litigation in the Commercial and Mercantile Courts, Court of Appeal and Supreme Court in London.

I am an ex-mariner and currently work for Clyde & Co LLP as a Senior Marine Manager specialising in commercial dispute resolution and I regularly advise first class Owners, P&I Clubs and traders.

I served at sea at a management level on a variety of vessels, including offshore vessels, oil, chemical, LPG/ LNG tankers, general cargo ships, superyachts and bulk carriers. I advise on technical issues arising within the shipping / offshore market and help resolve disputes under contracts and charterparties.

Experience

Clyde & Co LLP / Senior Marine Manager

OCTOBER 2002 - PRESENT, LONDON, DUBAI

Whilst at Clyde & Co I have represented clients in numerous LMAA, LCIA, ICC and ad hoc arbitrations involving marine disputes.

I act for clients throughout the marine industry but principally for ship owners, charterers, P&I clubs and traders.

I also run the Clyde & Co demurrage team and provide technical expertise for the Master Mariner department.

Clarity / IT Technical Director

AUGUST 2000 - OCTOBER 2002, LONDON

I was involved in developing the brand and bespoke computer software. This involved direct consumer interaction and correspondence. I also dealt with the legal and regulatory issues that arose from the business activities.

Henley Chartering / Ship Broker

MAY 1999 - OCTOBER 2002, OXFORDSHIRE

During my time at Henley Chartering I was involved in the day to day chartering activities on behalf of large international steel conglomerate. This involved fixing of OBO and Iron Ore vessels and drafting their contract of carriages.

Acomarit / Vessel Manager

FEBRUARY 1997 - MAY 1999, GLASGOW

Whilst at Acomarit I was the vessel manager for a fleet of VLCC and OBO vessels. I looked after all the day to day operational and post fixture work on behalf of one of the world's largest tanker owners.

Merchant Navy / Deck Hand to 1st Navigation Officer

MAY 1986 - FEBRUARY 1997, WORLDWIDE TRADING

Served at sea from all positions from deck hand through to 1st Officer.

Worldwide trading on a variety of vessels, including offshore vessels, oil, chemical, LPG/ LNG tankers, general cargo ships, superyachts and bulk carriers.
